

I am against this proposal as the code needs to remain part of the amateur license, regardless of the method of transmission the amateur radio operator wants to use. Leave all of the amateur radio license requirements as they presently are.

Jonathan Case    KE9KW